

COUNTRIES THAT HAVE EXPORTED CLUSTER MUNITIONS SINCE 1950

* The United States have enacted a ban on export of cluster munitions with a failure rate of more than 1% (March 2009).

- 1 – United States (at least 31 client States)
- 5 – United Kingdom (at least 16 client States)
- 7 – France (at least 6 client States)
- 8 – Germany (at least 8 client States)
- 12 – Russia (at least 27 client States)
- 14 – Israel (at least 9 client States)

Sources: Human Rights Watch
« Les sous-munitions et l'Union européenne » – Observatoire des transferts d'armements – June 2005